LxC 26497 Global Language Study Group
For CS301: Ethical, Social, and Global Issues in Computing
Assignment 1 – Due: 2/25/18 at 5:00pm

Student name:
Language of interest:
Country of interest:

Instructions: Take a look at "Search Engines" under the Content folder on our mycourses page. Click on "Going Beyond Google" link and read through the article to answer the question below. You may take a look at the other documents in the folder; however, it is not necessary.

Answer the following questions:
1. Why is Google your primary search engine? What features does it offer that you like?
   Google is the largest search engine for non-academic uses.
   Search engines are quite the same , however google engine attaches to google service. I Personally use google service a lot.

2. What's the name of the operator that Bing has that allows for users to search specific file types?

   FILETYPE

3. What search engine allows for easy-to-search pages between different languages?
   Yandex

4. List three features that the search engine Dogpile offers.

   1: chic design 2: comprehensive answers 3: clean templates

5. What search engine uses other search engine to provide search results?

   Yippy

6. What is Duck Duck Go's first priority?

   It for protecting user privacy. This priority regulate the search engine for going into personal emails history or social media etc.

7. What is particularly interesting about the search engine Goodserach?

   User could donate to a school they pick while using Goodsearch. 50 percents of the revenue Goodsearch made from you goes into Carity.

8. What is particularly interesting about the search engine GigaBlast?

Is one of the leading clean design search engine. Save energy usage.

9.  What search engine is nicknamed "China's Google"?

Baidu.